Grazings Restaurant (<http://www.grazing.com.au>) is around $70 per head for 3 course lunch plus wine/drinks, it is tucked behind the façade of a restored 1865 pub, just 30 minutes drive from Canberra, this multi award winning restaurant is the epitome of sophisticated country dining. With beautiful old world vibes diners are invited to feast on delicious Modern Australian fare which has been hand selected from the local Canberra region - there's nothing fussy or pretentious about this menu, it's all about textures and rich flavours. This is the ultimate celebration venue and you'll be so glad you made the trip.

Flint Restaurant is also around $70 per head for 3 course lunch plus wine/drinks and is ideally situated on the picturesque and historic property, Ollyville, at Shaw Vineyard Estate in Murrumbateman. The restaurant has a smart yet informal ambiance, with an open fireplace in the dining room, and glass windows overlooking the vineyard. It's reminiscent of the great vineyard restaurants from the country regions of France and Italy. A friendly team of young staff will help you to relax and unwind over a fabulous lunch.
